RE: SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITY REPORT

Dear Mayor Williams:

This report is to inform you of the results of an investigation that was conducted by Special Agent Denmark Slay, D.C. Office of the Inspector General (OIG), concerning Judith Jamison, a former District of Columbia Public Schools teacher, and the niece of an annuitant with the Office of Pay and Retirement Services, Office of the Chief Financial Officer.

This investigation revealed that after the death of Jamison's aunt, Jamison fraudulently obtained $31,782 in annuity payments by telephonically transferring the monthly payment from her aunt's sole signatory account to an account on which Jamison and her aunt were co-signatories. In addition, after her aunt's death, Jamison presented checks for payment that were drawn on her aunt's account bearing the signature of her deceased aunt.

On July 7, 2006, the Honorable Reggie Walton, United States District Court for the District of Columbia, sentenced Jamison to six months in prison, and ordered her to pay full restitution (due 30 days after the completion of her sentence) and a $100 special assessment fee. Jamison was also ordered to complete three years of supervised probation, and prohibited from incurring any additional debt.

If you need additional information, please call me on (202) 727-2540 or Leonard C. Odom, Assistant Inspector General for Investigations, on (202) 727-2995. When calling, please reference OIG Control Number 2001-0283.

Sincerely,
